

A Worship Minute.....

By Robert E. Webber, author of “Worship is a verb: Celebrating God’s Mighty Deeds of Salvation”

Although worship dramatizes an event that happened long ago, it brings that event into the present by the power of the Holy Spirit. In each worship experience, I am present in the actual event. . . . On Christmas I am present at the birth of Christ; on Epiphany I am there at the presentation of Christ; on Maundy Thursday I am present at the Last Supper; on Good Friday I am taken to the cross and put into the tomb; on Easter I stand at the empty tomb; and on Pentecost Sunday I receive the Holy Spirit.
