A GREAT CONCERT OPPORTUNITY is coming to our area! KEITH & KRISTYN GETTY will be performing at Calvary Baptist Church, in Oshawa, on Thursday, October 15th, at 7:00pm. The Gettys are masters in the writing of contemporary Christian music, and we sing many of their songs here at St. Andrew's. Catechism for Today:

The following question comes from “A Catechism For Today” booklet published by “A committee on church doctrine, The Presbyterian Church in Canada” in 2005. Each week, for the 52 weeks of the year, there will be a question printed in the bulletin announcements, taken from the total number of 141 questions in the booklet. If you want to move along more quickly, complimentary copies of the booklet are available through the church office.

QUESTION 90: WHAT IS JUSTIFICATION?

ANSWER: We often try to justify ourselves before others and before God by our own efforts, virtues, or successes. Justification means that we are put right with God not because of any goodness we can achieve, but by the goodness of Christ. God justifies the ungodly. We receive the grace of justification by union with Christ through faith.

Library

Dear friends,

Imagine your perfect warm weather reading spot. Are you basking on the deck of a sun-drenched backyard? Stretched out in a breezy hammock by the lake? Leaning against a leafy shade tree in the park? Okay, maybe our realities don't exactly match our dreams, but the great thing about being a fiction lover is that anywhere — even in a rusty lawn chair by the kiddie pool — can be a restful retreat. Discover the many fiction authors your St. Andrew's library has to offer. Transport yourself beyond the realities of everyday life...

“Legacy of the King’s Pirate” series by M.L. Tyndall: Book one of M.L. Tyndall’s 3-book series regards Lady Charlisse Bristol setting off on a voyage in search of a father she never knew, only to find herself shipwrecked on a desert island. Near starvation, she is rescued by a band of pirates. Will Charlisse win her struggle against the lure of this pirate captain, Edmund Merrick? Edmund offers to help Charlisse on her quest, until he discovers her father is none other than Edward the Terror, the cruellest pirate on the Caribbean. Can Edmund win this lady’s love while shielding her from his lecherous crew and working to bring her father to justice?

“Sister’s of Holmes County” series by Wanda Brunstetter: Book one of this 3-book series finds Grace Hostettler putting her rumschprunge days behind her, and she returns to her Amish community in Holmes County, Ohio, and becomes engaged to Cleon Schrock. Grace’s life is turned upside-down when she runs into Gary Walker, an English man who knows enough about her former life to destroy her future. Can God bring anything good out of a shameful past?

“The Angelwalk Trilogy” by Roger Elwood: Clearly portraying both the seen and unseen at work, these three volumes (Angelwalk, Fallen Angel, Steadfast) form a visionary story filled with angels, spiritual warfare and the struggle between good and evil.

“An Emerald Ballad” series by B.J. Koff: Book one of this acclaimed series begins the 5-book series of three friends raised in a tiny Irish village devastated by the potato famine of the mid-1800s, as they struggle to survive and hold onto their faith during Ireland’s darkest days.

“Chronicles of the Kings” by Lynn Austin: Book one of this 5-book series is full of biblical excitement at it’s best! When Hezekiah’s evil father plans to sacrifice him, Queen Abijah desperately tries to foil the plan. Only two men can help her and neither seems trustworthy. In a land of violence and sin, queen and prince must discover the one true source of their strength.

We would love to hear about the books you’ve read and enjoyed from the St. Andrew’s library. Please send us a review that we will post in the fall newsletter and bulletin!
