

A Worship Minute.....

by Annie Garrett of Hillsong

.....thoughts on corporate worship.....

“We are all different in so many ways. We have different backgrounds and different journeys. We may come from different churches or denominations, but when we gather together as the Church the thing we do have in common is Jesus. We are worshippers worshipping the same God, united by His Name. There is power in that unity.

I can't help but think about the unseen work that is also taking place in corporate times of worship. I wonder what God is doing in people's hearts...maybe He's healing people, breathing on old dreams, bringing new areas of freedom, breaking strongholds, mending broken things.

There is no doubt in my mind that in those moments, God is moving in people's lives. I know for myself there have been many moments in worship that God has clearly spoken to me, encouraged me, and confirmed things in me. And these moments have changed the course of my life and realigned my heart.”
