

Worship Minute, by Mark Cole: An attitude of worship: Honesty... God is not surprised at the difficulties that we go through. He knows when we have been treated unfairly. He knows when we have been hurt. Some of the best worship song lyrics come from the deepest sorrows and tragedies. "It Is Well With My Soul," was born out of a ship collision at sea that took the life of Horatio Spafford's four daughters. The faith behind the lyrics shines through like a beacon of hope. *"When peace, like a river, attendeth my way. When sorrows like sea billows roll
Whatever my lot, Thou has taught me to say, "It is well, it is well with my soul."*

Keep the conversation going: What influences you more: Jesus' death on the cross, or Jesus rising from the grave? (Connect with one of the children or youth after the service, or during the week!)
