

Listening to God

Many times in scripture we see that God's chosen people are complicated and act in ways that are inconstant and even contradictory. Think of Moses, David, and for today, think of Peter.

Without Christ we are hopeless.
Without the Holy Spirit of God we are hopeless.

God in Christ and in the Holy Spirit purifies us and calls us forward into new ways of being and living.

Yes, we will continue to make mistakes and sin but God is continually at work in and through us.

What a blessing it is to know we are not left to our own devices. We have Jesus and we have the Holy Spirit of God guiding, calling, leading and changing us; transforming us even into something beautiful in God's sight.

We are blessed beyond measure.

Think of ways God has changed you and called you into a new way of being and living as you prepare to worship God in community.
